

CORE

PREMIER

FULL-SERVICE

Benchmarking made easy

Step-by-step benchmarking wizard walks you through the process in minutes (not hours)

Automated benchmarking and submission to your local ordinance

Compliance check that ensures the data you've entered complies with your local ordinance and will be accepted

Centralized utility data for easy tracking

Unlimited users

enabling you to easily manage your team

Identify and track benchmarking compliance requirements across your portfolio

See and understand all your buildings at a glance with portfolio management

Continuous optimization and innovation based on user feedback

Energy management made intelligent

Virtual ASHRAE Level I Energy Assessment

delivers prioritized energy-saving recommendations and payback analysis (note: an in-person assessment with similar recommendations typically costs $2,000+)

Set energy management goals and prioritize projects based on potential savings

Performance dashboards

enable easy progress tracking across your portfolio

Utility forecasting

to predict costs, potential savings, and payback

Benchmarking done for you by experts.

Our team will work you to get the necessary data and complete and submit your benchmarking report.

Full-service energy assessment provides expert support to complete your assessment, analyze the results and turn insights into action

Ongoing access to energy experts to ensure you get the most out of Touchstone IQ

Proactive Compliance Promise

ensures your building gets into benchmarking compliance and you're notified about new regulations

